

Frank Daubner is professor for Ancient History at the University of Trier. After studying Ancient History and Archaeology at Göttingen, Thessaloniki and Cologne, he obtained his PhD with a book on the war of the Romans against Aristonicus of Pergamum and worked about various topics concerning Southern Italy, Epirus, Macedonia and Syria. A monograph about Macedonia in the 2nd and 1st centuries BC is about to appear.