

Angeliki Koukouvou is an archaeologist at the Greek Ministry of Culture & Sports and has carried out excavations in central and western Macedonia. She is currently based at the Archaeological Museum of Thessaloniki as curator of temporary and permanent exhibitions. Her PhD thesis is published under the title LITHON LATOMEIN: QUARRYING STONE. From the Asomata quarries to the buildings of the Macedonian kings (2012).