

Papagianni Eleni is an assistant Professor of Classical Archaeology in the Department of Archaeology in the Aristotle University of Thessaloniki. Her personal research mainly lies in the field of Roman Sculpture and particularly in that of Roman Greece. Except for articles and catalogue entries on various topics concerning sculpture in Roman Greece, her publications also include two monographs, the one in German "Attische Sarkophage mit Erosen und Girlanden" in the DAI (Deutsches Archäologisches Institut)-Series "Sarkophag-Studien" and the other in Greek "Ανασκαφή Νικοπόλεως. Σαρκοφάγοι αττικής και τοπικής παραγωγής» in collaboration with Prof. Th. Stefanidou-Tiveriou.