

Katerina Peristeri, director of Antiquities in the prefecture of Serres from 2004 to 2015 (now honorary director), studied archeology at the Aristotle University of Thessaloniki and did her post-graduated studies (DEA) at Paris I-Sorbonne University. She was a research fellow at CNRS (French national scientific research center) in Paris. From 1980 on, as an archeologist of the Ministry of Culture, she has excavated in Thrace (Avdira), Eastern Macedonia (Thassos, Drama) and Central Macedonia (Sidirokastro, Neos Skopos, Amphipoli). From 2010 to 2015 she led the excavation of the Kasta tumulus in Amphipolis.