

Konstantina Tsonaka is a classical archaeologist whose main research interests include ancient Greek vase painting, particularly of the Archaic and Classical periods, mural painting and iconography. She holds a PhD (2008) and a MA (2001) in Classical Archaeology from the Aristotle University of Thessaloniki. At the moment, she is member of the Laboratory Teaching Staff in the School of History and Archaeology, Aristotle University of Thessaloniki.